Unfortunately for the popular pair, Lüthi punctured soon after the climb. Neither of the riders could find the exact spot on the tyre and had to repeatedly stop to inflate. "I think I just had heavy legs on the bike and was too heavy going over some sharp rocks. It happens. That's racing. We kept cool and rode consistently to the end. You can't get flustered with one puncture. We just focused on what we had to do and made it home with consistent riding. There's still a long way to go. We're in pretty good shape." Stage 2 sees the riders leaving Lourensford Wine Estate for Elandskloof Farm Cottages, Greyton, travelling 123km in the process out of Somerset West and through Grabouw before reaching their final destination. Another tactical battle is certainly on the cards. Tune in to the Live Broadcast of the first transition stage of the 2022 Absa Cape Epic from 08:30 on cape-epic.com .
